

Biography

Ann-Marie Wennberg has been Chief Executive Officer at Sahlgrenska University Hospital, the largest hospital in Sweden, since 2016. Ann-Marie is professor in Dermatology and Venereology, Chairman of the National Health Competence Council, commissioner of the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences' Health Committee and board member of Agenda for Health and Prosperity, a national initiative to improve the environment for research and innovation. Ann-Marie Wennberg believes in a close cooperation between health care, academia and industry and that university hospitals play a key role in making Sweden a leading life science nation.