

Darja Isaksson, Director General of Vinnova – Short Bio

Darja Isaksson is Director General of Vinnova, Sweden's innovation agency, and serves as a member of the Swedish government's National Digitalization Council. She is a founder of three agencies. She has served as adviser to the Prime Minister's Innovation Council, been recognized as one of Sweden's most powerful opinion-makers by the financial magazine Veckans Affärer and was named one of the world's 100 most influential people in digital government by the website Apolitical.