

UNIVERSITY OF COPENHAGEN Background: A very interested - but disinterested - "real" doctor disinterested adjective • UK 🜒 /dɪˈsɪn.trə.stɪd/ US 📢 /dɪˈsɪn.trə.stɪd/ having no personal involvement or receiving no personal advantage, and therefore free to act fairly: a disinterested observer/judgment Note Disinterested is sometimes used to mean not interested, but many people consider this use to be incorrect. Compare uninterested. - Thesaurus: synonyms and related words Robert Killick-Kendrick Unbiased or impartial merit balanced disinterest dispassionate equitable equity impartial neutral neutrality non-aligned non-alignment non-intervention objective unbiased Rigshospitalet (Definition of "disinterested" from the Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary & Thesaurus © Cambridge University Press)

7

Acknowledgements Friends and colleagues at Centre for Medical Parasitology Friends and colleagues everywhere else, not least in Africa! Multiple sponsors for financial support over the years You for listening Thank you!

