

Technological, demographic and climate changes: increased risk of mosquito-borne diseases

When: June 10th, 2022

12:30 - 1:30pm

Where: Willem Burger Zaal (Plenary)

Chairs:

Dr. George Kassianos, MD. President British Global & Travel Health Association (BGTHA)

Prof. Eric Caumes, MD. Travel vaccination center, Hôtel Dieu Hôpital, Paris, France

ONE BITE IS ENOUGH

Risk of and protection against mosquito borne-disease using the example of Japanese Encephalitis virus (20 min)

Speaker: Assistant Prof. Johanna Lindahl, PhD.

International Livestock Research Institute (ILRI), Kenya & Uppsala University, Sweden.

EMERGING INFECTIOUS DISEASE

Chikungunya as a public health threat and introduction to future vaccine candidates (20 min)

Speaker: Prof. Tomas Jelinek, MD.

Berlin Center for Travel and Infectious Disease (BCRT), Germany.